Egypt Warns U. S. Palestine Waters Now 'Dangerous'

Notice Is Served On U. S. Amid Reports U. S. May Lift Arms Embargo

EGYPT HAS SEIZED BELGIAN STEAMER

By W. P. SAPHIR
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)
CAIRO, May 17.—Egypt served notice on the United States today that Palestine territorial waters are now "dangerous" to all ships. The warning was issued amid reports that the United States may lift its embargo on shipments of arms to the Middle East to permit supply of munitions to the Jewish state.

Official sources said that all big powers were served with the warning, which noted that arms shipments to the Zionists will be confiscated in accordance with international law.

Steamer Is Seized

The warning came after the Egyptian government seized the Belgian steamer Haimut in Alexandria harbor. The vessel was said to be carrying a cargo of arms for Israel.

Reports reaching Cairo said that Egyptian forces are now 27 miles south of Tel Aviv, and have captured the coastal town of Al Majfal, 33 miles north of the Egyptian border.

However, Arab circles in Cairo admitted that their forces had not yet attacked any of the well-fortified Jewish settlements.

They said the real test of Egyptian strength would come then. A government communique said that Egyptian planes continued their bombings of Tel Aviv and that ships in the Israeli city's port area were "widely dispersed."

In Pincers Movement
At the same time it was reported that Trans-Jordan Arab legion troops, sweeping across the Holy Land from the east, were engaged in a pincers movement to cut off Jewish settlements in the Negev.

The Cairo newspaper Al Misri said that Arab league strategy calls for the Egyptian and Trans-Jordan armies to close the pincers at a point near the Mediterranean coast, and then launch joint offensive to recapture the port city of Jaffa.

Meanwhile, fearful of Jewish retaliation for the bombings of Tel Aviv, Egyptian authorities readied Cairo's air raid defenses.

Steeped in the magnificence of the age old ritual and ceremony of the Holy, Catholic and Apostolic Church, Trinity Episcopal Church commenced the celebration of its Centennial Anniversary Sunday morning at 11:00 o'clock with a Choral Celebration of the Holy Eucharist.

Singing a beloved hymn of the Church, the Crucifer, Torchbearers, Choir, Acolytes, Clergy and visiting Church dignitaries, in full ceremonial robes approached the High Altar in a Festal Procession, where the beautiful Choral Holy Eucharist, a service of Humility, Adoration, Praise, Worship and

Rev. A. E. Simon has presented Rev. Fr. Ralph E. Hovencamp with two gavel made from the wood used in the building of the former Trinity church, now St. John's Lutheran church for the Centennial celebration. The gavel was made from wood taken from a pew, a window and the belfry. Rev. Simon calls them Trinity wood.

The gavel is now being inscribed and will be presented Tuesday to the Rt. Rev. Harold E. Sawyer, D. D., Bishop of Erie, who will preside during the Diocesan Convention and to Mrs. A. N. Warner, President of Woman's Auxiliary which meets in session at the same time.

Thanksgiving was sung in all its glory from the historically famous Solemn (St. Cecilia) Mass (Messe Solennelle) by Charles Gounod, with the Rector of the local Parish, the Rev. Fr. Ralph E. Hovencamp as celebrant assisted by the Rev. Fr. Bruce V. Reddish, former rector.

Sermon By Bishop

The sermon was delivered by the Rt. Rev. B. F. P. Ivins, D.D.C.L., Bishop of Milwaukee. He used as his text "Let us now praise the famous men and fathers that begat us." He stated that "100 years isn't a long time in history, but I suppose there will never be a more pregnant century than the past one, especially in this part of the world." "I am tremendously impressed by the degree of devotion of those early fathers of the church. They were building a permanent community, and the church was generally the first building erected, which was a healthy and wholesome fear and it was a perfect (Continued on Page Six)

U. N. Will Consider Palestine Invasion

By PIERRE J. HUSS
(U. N. Staff Correspondent)

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., May 17.—The United Nations makes another attempt to catch up with history today when it considers the Arab invasion of Palestine. The security council meets at 3:30 p. m. (EDT) today to consider Jewish charges of aggression against Egypt. A complaint filed on behalf of the three-day-old state of Israel by Foreign Minister Moshe Shertok yesterday called on the 11-nation council to take "immediate action."

Another message from Shertok, addressed to UN Secretary-General Trygve Lie contained an application from Israel for membership in the world organization.

Third Problem

A third problem—that of a neutral mediator for the Holy Land—will be discussed by the big five today.

Israel's request for action against Egypt was preceded by a Jewish agency demand on Saturday for the invoking of sanctions and military force against the Arabs if they continue their aggression. In reply, the Arab higher command (Continued on Page Two)

Momentous Decisions Are Facing President

By JOHN A. REICHMANN
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, May 17.—Administration officials from President Truman down today faced a series of momentous decisions in regard to the newly created state of Israel.

Almost non-partisan endorsement of Mr. Truman's sudden move in recognizing the new Jewish government of Israel minutes after its creation last Friday appears likely to remove the action from domestic politics.

The sole criticism of Mr. Truman's action appears to stem from the fact that he had taken almost no members of Congress and only heads of his State Department into his confidence.

May Raise Questions

In view of the fact that the President recognize the provisional government of the newly formed (Continued on Page Two)

Soviet Policy Still Uncertain On Israel-Arabs

By PIERRE J. HUSS
(U. N. Staff Correspondent)

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., May 17.—Soviet delegate Andrei Gromyko indicated at Lake Success today that Russia's policy on Israel and Arab invasion of Palestine still is uncertain.

The Russian, who was on hand to battle the move by the western faction to close out atomic control discussions, announced he did not yet know whether he can take a stand today in the Security Council on any question related to Palestine events.

Previous experience has disclosed that Gromyko means he has not yet received instructions on such policy matters from the Soviet government.

Commandos Of Jewish Forces Take Offensive

Blow Up Strategic Bridge Inside Lebanese Border, And Retire

TENTH AIR RAID MADE ON TEL AVIV

By BENN FELLER
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

TEL AVIV, State Of Israel, May 17.—Jewish commandos took the offensive in Israel's war for independence today.

They struck across the frontier of Lebanon and blew up a strategic bridge 10 miles inside the Lebanese border, retiring after the lightning raid while Tel Aviv was subjected to its tenth Arab air attack.

Mine Laying Begins

The Egyptian government in Cairo, anticipating an early end to the embargo on arms shipments to Palestine, announced that the waters lapping the Holy Land now are "dangerous" to all shipping.

Tips indicated that mine-laying operations may have begun in addition to patrol operations by the Egyptian Navy.

The newly-formed Tel Aviv broadcasting station "Voice of Israel" warned Egypt and other states now invading Palestine that their cities will be subjected to aerial bombardment.

Air Attacks To Continue

"Air attacks on Arab cities will come."

Communications with Jerusalem remained virtually suspended. (The London Evening News said that a Cairo newspaper published a claim by the Arab Higher Committee that the "old city" of Jerusalem which is predominantly Jewish, had surrendered to Arab forces.)

A Haganah communique said that the commandos blew up an important bridge on the Litani river, west of Marjayoun, on the road leading into northern Palestine.

The Haganah said that destruction (Continued on Page Two)

Geo. R. McClelland Retiring As Head Of Sunday School

Completing 44 Years Of Active Service As Sunday School Superintendent

Forty-four years service as a Sunday school superintendent, 32 of which have been served in New Castle and Lawrence county, will be rounded out by George R. McClelland, 409 Pine street, superintendent of the Central Presbyterian church Sunday school on June 1.

Serving faithfully for the past 27 years as head of the Central Presbyterian Sunday school, Mr. McClelland has decided to retire and turn the reins of directing the Sunday school over to his assistants. The Session of the Central church reluctantly accepted the resignation and elected James Montgomery Thompson, assistant superintendent, to assume the leadership.

Mr. McClelland has an enviable record in Sunday school work, having spent a good portion of his life either as a superintendent or official in the Sunday school. Before coming to New Castle, Mr. McClelland served for 12 years as superintendent of the McClure avenue Presbyterian Sunday school of Pittsburgh.

Five years he served as superintendent of the Mission school on Scotland Lane and for 27 years has been head of the school in Central church.

On the merry month of May when the lambs and goats play and the bees keep humming as they make their honey, when the blossoms fill the air with a perfume faint and rare, and the days are all expected to be sunny, something's wrong with what I say, for it isn't dry today and the weather man is stopped at sixty six, and the air is cool and damp, for a frolic or a tramp and the calendar seems slightly in a fix.

Three Atomic Weapon Tests Are Completed

By JAMES LEE
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, May 17.—The White House announced today the successful completion of tests involving three atomic weapons, of improved design, at Eniwetok Atoll in the central Pacific.

Security considerations barred disclosure of detailed information on the tests but the atomic energy commission reported to President Truman that they were "successful in all respects."

European sources reported that one of the experiments involved the detonation of an atomic mine, exploded at a depth of 500 meters, or about 1,600 feet.

Neither the atomic energy commission nor any other agency would comment on the European report.

However, the commission declared that the Eniwetok experiments "indicate very substantial progress" in the determination of the United States to retain its atomic leadership.

The White House announced Mr. Truman's approval of plans for immediate initiation of further nuclear development, "based upon information gained from the tests."

Pa Newc Observes

Work is well under way on widening and resurfacing of the New Castle to Slippery Rock highway from the Butler county line east to the town of Slippery Rock. It will make a fine improvement on this route.

One of the beautiful spring sights at the present time is the row of trees on Leasure avenue, west of the intersection of North Mercer street. They are literally covered with small red blossoms.

Area residents thought that the city and county were in for a severe wind storm early this morning at the rate the wind kicked up for a short while. Fortunately the violence was short lived and instead a steady rain fell for several hours.

Heavy Sunday traffic in the downtown section of the city was observed by Pa Newc. The slow moving traffic formed lines for long distances at every traffic light. Cars waiting at the Croton avenue-East Washington light going west, moved only three or four car lengths before the light changed. The Public Square was a mass of slow moving vehicles.

Neshannock Township Group Will Observe First Anniversary Of Organization

NEW OFFICERS TO BE NAMED

This month marks the first anniversary of the Neshannock Township Civic League, of which Norman A. Clark is president, and which in its first year of existence has accomplished a number of things for the improvement of living conditions in the township.

The anniversary meeting of the league will be observed at a meeting to be held in the Walmo school this evening at 8:15, and at this time new officers will be named for the coming year.

An opportunity will be given to all residents of the community who have projects in mind which are for the betterment of the community to present them at this evening's meeting, which will be an open meeting for all residents interested.

In addition to creating a closer feeling of cooperation between residents of the township, a number of projects have been started which are for the mutual benefit of all those residing in the township. The members of the league are hoping that the coming year will produce a closer bond of fellowship, and see the consummation of many of these projects on which the league is now working.

These include a zoning program for the township, the extension of city water lines into the more thickly populated areas, a recreational program for all, and many other projects which are now in the process of being carried out.

Another complication broke in as an offshoot of the U. S. recognition of Israel. T. F. Tsiang of China demanded that the American consul in Jerusalem be withdrawn as a member of the true commission on the grounds that President Truman's action no longer made him a neutral.

Then he began shouting about hammers and guns and "goings on all night."

state as the "de facto authority" for that area may raise several legal questions.

Until this has been looked into and the various international as well as national political aspects surveyed no sweeping moves are anticipated. However, Mr. Truman is faced with these problems:

1. Shall the six month old arms embargo on the Middle East be lifted?

2. If so, which will it benefit the most the Arabs or Jews?

3. Should the United States assume an all-out attitude in support of the Jewish state to the point of aiding it in resisting the Arabs?

4. What policy is to be assumed in the United Nations when the question of a threat to the peace in the Middle East comes before it?

Depend on Developments

All these issues are likely to be influenced by developments in the Middle East. Reports thus far have been fragmentary and in no way determine how powerful the Arab forces are or how determined they may be in attempting to invade the Jewish state itself.

There seems little doubt that, having supported partition and recognized Israel, the United States would join in branding forces from Arab States outside Palestine as aggressors. It also is certain that the United States would support any and every move designed to bring about end of bloodshed.

Several Steps

On the positive side of providing assistance to the new state there are several steps the United States can take. They are:

1. Assist displaced persons in Europe who want to go to the Holy Land and assist in strengthening Israel. Gen. Lucius Clay in Berlin already has said that American forces will assist such displaced persons in getting to the borders.

2. Facilitate the movement of Zionists and sympathizers from this country to Palestine. Presumably some assurance that they would not be armed forces might be demanded, and in any event, they would be warned that they would lose U. S. protection if they did so.

3. Name an envoy to the new state, presumably as the President's personal representative since de facto recognition does not call for an exchange of diplomats.

COMMANDOS OF JEWISH FORCES TAKE OFFENSIVE

tion of the bridge forced the retreat of a Lebanese invasion column moving toward Palestine. All the commandos were said to have returned safely.

Cheers Tel Aviv Inhabitants

The announcement cheered inhabitants of Tel Aviv, Israel's principal city, who suffered two Arab air raids this morning. They marked the tenth air assault on Tel Aviv during the past three days.

Haganah said that its troops captured the police fortress of Nebi Yushe, on the Lebanese frontier. On the Syrian frontier, Haganah reported that three Arab armored cars were put out of action in yesterday's fighting at Samakh, just south of the Sea of Galilee.

Another two were reported blasted in fighting at the settlement of Gesher, not far away.

Mechanized Columns Move

Cairo reports said that Egyptian mechanized columns have swept up the coastal road from Gaza to within 27 miles of Tel Aviv.

Damascus reports indicated that Syria and Iraq have also hurled their air forces into action against the Jewish state.

(The Egyptian government warned big powers that Palestine waters are now "dangerous" to foreign ships.)

The first raid was carried out by two planes which dropped six bombs, apparently intended for the Tel Aviv port area. A second attack was made a few hours later.

Anti-aircraft fire from the city's defense appeared to be weak and incapable of halting the attacks.

Eight previous raids by Egyptian planes resulted in the death of six Jews. The Zionists were reported marshalling their strength for possible retaliation.

Simultaneously, in a land campaign, the forces of the infant republic engaged armies of three Arab states in battle.

U. S. Government Explains Desertion Of Army Sergeant

Gets Jump On Russia In Explaining Moscow Incident At Special Conference

WASHINGTON, May 17.—(INS)—The American government apparently got the jump on Russia today by explaining the case of a young American army sergeant who deserted in Moscow and proclaimed his intention to remain in the Soviet.

The State Department announced that Sgt. James M. MacMillan, 21, of Boulder, Colo., has refused to return to the United States following his term of duty at the American embassy in the Russian capital.

Department officials told reporters at a special Sunday night news conference that the soldier allegedly had fallen under the spell of a beautiful Russian agent and that the incident did not involve politics.

Special News Conference

The special news conference apparently was called to give out the story before the Russians possibly could make any propaganda capital of it.

In a formal statement the department said:

"The American embassy at Moscow has reported that Sgt. James M. MacMillan sent word to the embassy on May 15 of his refusal to return to the United States on that date, and of his intention of remaining in the Soviet Union."

"Sgt. MacMillan has been on duty in the military attaché's office in the embassy at Moscow for the past two years."

The woman in the case was named as Mrs. Galina Dunayeva Bionish, who previously had been married to another American army sergeant, John Bionish, who also was formerly on the staff at the U. S. embassy in Moscow.

WHO'S COOPERATING WITH WHOM?

Quite a few Americans, including Henry Wallace and some of his supporters, believe we have left undone a great many things which might make Russia a friend. A common remark is:

"We haven't tried to cooperate."

If we haven't tried, we'd like to know what a real trial would be.

Let's study the record—

Lend-Lease to Russia with no strings attached, $11,000,000,000. Billions, that is.

UNRRA, more billions given to the Soviets and their satellites.

At Tehran and Yalta we yielded large territorial concessions in Germany, Poland and the Kuriles.

We permitted Russia to have three votes in the UN.

We stood by while the Reds grabbed all of Eastern Europe, Poland and Czechoslovakia.

We have been insulted by all sorts of name-calling and false accusations.

Russia has paralyzed the UN by use of her veto.

She has boycotted nearly all UN agencies.

Russia has nullified the Potsdam and other treaties.

She has been assisting guerrilla forces in Greece.

She has compromised the independence of Poland.

And, still, we haven't "cooperated."

In View Of News Of The World

By J. C. Ostreicher, INS Foreign Director

Swift United States recognition of the newly-proclaimed state of Israel by President Truman emphasized that Palestine's problem is as thorny a one in the diplomatic field as it is a military one.

The new Jewish state of Israel that was proclaimed in Tel Aviv made it apparent that Jewish leadership would lose no time in seeking formal recognition and admission to the family of nations.

Questions Raised
This raised two questions:
First, could recognition be accorded under international law before Israel had obtained a formal government elected by the people?

Second, would it be to the advantage of the United Nations to hasten recognition or might move be achieved for world peace if this were delayed?

Prior to President Truman's unexpected announcement, best information available was that Israel could not hope for any action until the fall.

The general assembly is winding up until the September session in Paris. Israel's formal application for U. N. association must go to the membership committee which can do no more than recommend. UN proceedings, never noted for speed, may be expected to approach this now evermore ticklish proceeding in low gear.

Several Factors
There are several factors militating against speedy recognition. Among them is the fact that the U. N. wants to get a mediator into Palestine who might be able to prevent the full-scale Arab-Jewish war that threatens.

A mediator would lose a great deal of his importance if the U. N. virtually "over his head," recognizes the new regime.

There is also the fact that recognition can and doubtless will be used as a bargaining point. Once it is granted the bargaining advantage is gone.

The western powers may move within the next few months for admission of Trans-Jordan, which Soviet Russia has vetoed once. The Russians have indicated that they along with their satellites might recognize Israel speedily. But they know that such action might bring in turn a western veto on Israel's membership.

Brings New Issues
United Nations observers are reluctantly convinced that the Tel Aviv declaration, instead of solving the problem, has brought new issues.

Looking At Life
By Erich Brandeis

"The society which fosters research to save human life can not escape the responsibility for the life thus extended," Dr. Edward L. Bortz, president of the American Medical Association, said in a recent address. "It is for science not only to add years to life, but, more important, to add life to the years."

"To add life to the years"—there in six words is one of the greatest problems that face us today.

Enormous strides have been made in prolonging life.

In 1910 less than one-fifth of the population of the United States was 45 or over and the average person of 45 had about an even chance to live to the age of 65; today a man's chances are about 70 in 100 and a woman's are better than 80 in 100.

But what are we doing with our older people?

Medicine and science in general have made enormous strides in adding to the years of our lives.

But our social and economic forces have not at all kept step with the forces of science.

Industry and commerce cling to the old idea that at 40 an employee is ready for the scrap heap, and few concerns hire help above that age.

Here is one of the phenomena of the situation:

I know a number of men fifty, sixty, even seventy years of age who are holding down positions at the head of their concerns, and none would doubt their ability for a moment.

Bernard Baruch's mind today is as clear as it ever was. Walter Gifford, head of the American Telephone Company, is in his sixties. General Douglas MacArthur is a candidate for the Presidency at 68. Frederick Moore Vinson, at 58, is one of the youngest men ever to hold the office of Chief Justice of the United States.

But let a man or a woman of 45 go around and apply for a minor clerical job and they are told that they are too old.

Too old for what?

Certainly a woman of 45 or 50 isn't hired for her looks any more, nor a man of that age for his physical strength or the agility of his feet.

But for loyalty, for experience, for good judgment, for steadiness and good attendance, the older people will invariably be infinitely better risks than the young girls whose one ambition in life it is to get married, or the boys who think much more of tonight's fun than tomorrow's career.

Unquestionably there are jobs that require youth and the pep that only youth has. But there are thousands of other jobs where the assets of age are well worth their price.

In just a few more years we shall have millions of people in the fifties and sixties who, by progress of science, will still be active, alert in mind and potentially useful to industry and commerce.

Are we going to condemn them to thumb-twiddling and to old folks homes?

Why prolong life if we don't prolong living?

(Copyright, 1948, by King Feature Syndicate, Inc.)

ing the Palestine problem by any means, simply brings a vexatious issue to a head.

They feel that if delaying tactics can put the affair over until September in Paris, the intervening months may have softened the military aspects of the problem. Whether they will depends largely upon just how sincere is the Arab determination to invade Palestine and provoke a full-scale local war with tremendous danger to the world.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

PREPARING CHILD FOR SCHOOL

Wise parents who have children old enough to begin school next September are thinking now of what they might do to prepare the child best for this experience. Still wiser parents begin thinking of this matter as soon as the child is born, if not before.

Thanks to the summer round up program sponsored for many years by the National Congress of Parents and Teachers (known locally as the PTA), the attention of many parents of children nearly five or six years has been focused during this time of year on the physical fitness of the little child for entering school in the fall. Accordingly, many children have been given a physical check-up, when parents request such, by the school health department or by volunteer from the dental and medical profession.

When children are thus found to need remedial care of the physician or dentist these facts are announced to the parents who are advised to take these matters be attended to by the family physician and dentist. Also this program has spread to emphasize social and emotional preparation of the young child for entering school.

Writing for Advice
To a greater degree than ever before at this time of year, parents have been writing me for advice on psychological preparation of the child who will enter school in September. Even in the few remaining months these parents should be able to accomplish much in this direction. Here let me offer a few suggestions.

1. See that your child has a thorough physical check. Be sure his hearing and vision are tested. Carry out the advice of your physician and dentist faithfully and promptly. If any remedial work is advised have it done at once. Don't wait until July or August.

2. Foster good sleep habits in your child. Provide him with a family atmosphere of love, security and peace. See that he is not over-excited.

3. Consider your child's social readiness. Does he play normally with other children of his own age? The better he does so the more easily he will get along with other children at school and on the way to and from school.

4. Make him self-reliant, doing for himself everything he is reasonably able to do. Also help him grow in emotional independence, weakening the protestings which have tied him too close to you. Help him to be happy in your absence.

5. Cultivate in him responsibility not only for doing some things he likes to do but also for doing a few desirable things he would rather not do.

6. Train him to respect the rights and possessions of others and to have due regard for constituted authority.

7. Encourage him at self-amusement and creative play with paper, scissors, crayons, paste and other simple playthings. Enjoy his creations with things or words.

8. Answer his questions kindly, converse with him companionably. Help him enjoy achievement.

9. Read some to him daily. No better way to practice him in ease of concentration and readiness to listen well to what he should hear at school.

10. Instill in him a hopeful, happy attitude.

Chairman Of The Board
(By Holmes Alexander)

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 17.—At the latest accounting 65 per cent of the GOP senators had voted with their party leadership 90 per cent of the time. The Democrats on the same basis had scored only 45 per cent. These figures are significant because party leadership in Republican lingo is a quick way of saying Senator Robert Alphonso Taft.

The general public takes Taft's leadership for granted, but GOP regulars know better. To them the where and how of Taft's power have a local habitation and a name.

The location is Room 325 of the Senate Office Building and the name is Majority Policy Committee. The room looks like—and is—the ornate meeting place of a very potent board of directors. There is a long baize-covered table, equipped with arm chairs and ashtrays. Overhead are three glittering, cut glass chandeliers. Here with splendor above and solid comfort beneath, the 12-man directorate meets once a week on the big and little problems of Republican politics.

Taft Prime Mover
Chairman Taft is the prime mover and shaker of the meetings. His habitual passion for detail has molded the board to the purposes of the hour. The law which created the committee provided for a seven-man membership. The appropriation bill provided a fund of $30,000. Neither of these arrangements suited Taft. He added two "advisory members"—Senators Saltonstall and Cordon—to bring party factions into balance. He recognized a Young Turk movement among the 16 GOP freshman senators and gave non-voting status to two of this group, usually represented by Senators Baldwin, Flinders, Martin or Dworshak. He got Senator Vandenberg, foreign policy spokesman, to sit in on the meetings.

Finding the appropriation insufficient for extensive research, Taft took steps to raise the working fund to $52,000. This enabled him to engage George H. E. Smith, a Yale university fact-finder, to head the research staff. But committee finances reflect the chairman's notions of economy. The staff is currently operating on only 60 per cent of its gross budget.

Beyond Confines Of Congress
The party's reputation, under the Taft system, extends far beyond the confines of Congress. He felt it important that Republican senators make a creditable showing in all correspondence, as well as exhibit some uniformity of thought on party matters. Thus the research staff performs some rather unusual functions. It regularly answers "think" letters which constituents write to individual Republican senators. It also prepares "quickie" analyses of legislation for senators who get caught short in meetings, on the telephone and on the floor. These capsule jobs can be turned out in 15 minutes and appear on regulation forms. For longer and more definitive studies of legislation, the staff publishes heavy-reading pamphlets which are based on a clip-file that dates back to 1875.

Another staff duty is to supply Republican senators with ammunition to use against presidential appointees and other legitimate Republican prey. Some of these dossiers are short and charitable, but it took 100 pages to brief the party on Henry Wallace. Still another staff job is the publication of a weekly bulletin to tell senators what matters may come to the floor and, in general, to give them quotable, off-the-cuff repartee for political dialogue.

Reputation Great Inside Party
This sort of thoroughness, with its long-term results, is one reason why Taft's reputation is greater inside the party than without. No one ever expected him to shine as a campaigner. It is said that he cannot speak, but this is an inexact criticism. He simply cannot or will not act. Not long ago Taft finished a major address and remarked to a nearby reporter: "I guess I should have given them some pauses where they could—er, that is—applaud." The last word grated so hard on his modest honesty that Taft could hardly get it out.

On the Senate floor he is equally unimpressive. Visitors crane over the gallery rail to see him. He usually shuffles in late when the benediction, roll call and other non-function preliminaries are done with. If Senate proceedings become trivial, Taft solemnly opens a fat briefcase, pulls out some documents and gets on with his homework. To observers he looks like a grown-up example of what makes Jack a dull boy.

But after months of rough-house campaigning, in which he seldom got the best of it, Taft is still very much in the presidential race. If the country wants a fireball, a phrase-maker or a photogenic model, it will not turn to Taft. But if the nation decides that the great affairs should be managed by a business-like, hardheaded, chairman of the board, it will not have to look any further.

Joe Has Him Out On Limb

By PAUL GALICCO

Mr. Joe Louis, Bear Lake, Michigan.

Dear Joe:

Well, Joe, how are you? I am fine and hope that you are fine too and getting along nicely with your training for your return match with Jersey Joe Walcott next June and that everything is going nicely.

Oh, and since the subject has come up, I read a little piece in the paper last week which said that your first sparring partner when you move to Pompton Lakes will be a fellow named Richard Hagan, a 200 pounder who was the Chicago Golden Gloves champion of 1947, and really, Joe, that is what I am writing to you about, in a way, to say to you, "Oh no, no, no, Joe, this is no time to be monkeying around with amateurs. Do me the kind favor, please, to engage somebody to exercise with you who knows something about the art of prize fighting or I am in some very serious trouble."

Before It Is Too Late
Well, Joe, that is what I would say to you if I were with you which is why I am writing you this letter before it is too late, and I am in a very serious kind of jam from which only you can get me out of.

I do not know whether you have seen the current issue of Cosmopolitan Magazine in which I have an article entitled "The Fifth Factor," as ambiguous and unrevealing a title as I ever managed to cook up, but in it I pick you to whip Jersey Joe with no ifs, ands, or buts. I say that you will knock him out in the first round in nothing flat. I say that he will be lucky if you do not catch him at the foot of the stairs and stiffen him on his way up into the ring. . . .

I know, I know, Joe, I didn't HAVE to go and say those things, but they crossed my palm with silver and lured me out of retirement to perform just once more as a seer, wizard and practicing prophet. I gave them 5,000 choice words on exactly how and why you would enchain Massa Walcott the very first moment he dismounted from his bicycle. I am way out on a limb, Joe, boy, way, way out. I am so far out on this limb I cannot even see the tree any more to which it is attached. And then I read that you are aiming to do some fusing with a gent one year out of the amateurs to prepare yourself. Joseph, you cannot do this to me, your old friend, which is why I am writing to you.

Please No Amateurs Or Beginners
I will not mention to you the photograph which appeared in the papers not long ago in which you looked like a gent who had stuck his head in a wasp's nest, you were that swollen up. Frankly, after I have gone six flat rounds with a mess of fettucini, spaghetti and ravioli, I do not look so good myself, but it is nothing that cannot be reduced with a little diet and exercise. I am not worried about any snot which is dressing your mitts. I like a guy who is getting ready for a fight to have something to work on. But, Joe, friend, please no amateurs or beginners.

Fifth Victim Of Crash Dies

Toll In Tuesday Morning's Collision Raised With Death Of William Moore

With the death of William Louis Moore, aged 37 years, of Weinberg way, on Saturday the toll of the crash on Route 422, 12 miles west of New Castle, which occurred at 2 a. m. Tuesday, was raised to five, bringing the year's auto fatalities to 16. Moore expired in the Jameson Memorial hospital at 7:10 o'clock Saturday evening.

Mr. Moore never regained consciousness after being brought to the hospital, death resulting from a laceration of the brain. A specialist from the Cleveland Clinic was called into consultation on the case during the week, but there was nothing which could be done to save his life.

The body was removed to the Crunkleton funeral home on Grant street to be prepared for burial.

Born In Georgia

Mr. Moore was born in Griffin, Ga., October 10, 1910, son of Mrs. Clyde Moore Casey; and the late Milard Phillips Moore. He came to this city with his family in October, 1924. His father died June 19, 1926.

Surviving are his mother, Mrs. C. M. Casey; and step-father, Aron Casey; two brothers, James C. Moore, Farrell, Pa.; and Frederick Casey, of this city; and five sisters: Emma, Annie C., Mrs. Emma H. Employees Return At St. Paul Plant

National Guard Troops Keep Way Clear To Gates Of Packing Plant

ST. PAUL, Minn., May 17—(INS)—Employees streamed un-molested into the Swift meat packing plant at South St. Paul today.

Only seven striking CIO-United Packinghouse Workers pickets marched in front of the plant gates as the men and women drove through in cars or arrived on foot.

It was the first time since the nine-week-old strike started on March 16 that large number of workers had returned to work.

Truck after truck of livestock also drove into the Swift plant.

The marchers shouted "scab" and let loose with cat-calls as National Guard troops cleared the way for the first returning workers, but there was no violence.

No wholesale back-to-work movement was reported at the Armour plant.

Co-Executor In Estate Is Sued

Accounting In Estate Of Ella M. Ritchie Is Asked By Eugene Burford

OTHER NEWS OF COURT HOUSE HILL

Bill of complaint was filed Saturday in the Prothonotary's office in the action brought by Eugene Burford, executor in the estate in Ella M. Ritchie against Paul L. Tillia, co-executor.

The complaint and action is based on a quasi-contract involving a legal obligation on the part of Paul L. Tillia to pay over to the executor of the estate of Ella M. Ritchie, decedent, the moneys, funds and personal property which are alleged to have been unlawfully obtained by Tillia from the decedent Ella M. Ritchie, during the period of her last illness, and while she was confined in the hospital and was in a weak and feeble mental and physical condition, the bill of complaint charges.

It is claimed that the defendant holds these and refuses to turn them over to the estate, claiming that he received them as a gift from the decedent.

Included in the items is the sum of $13,532, which it is alleged, had been on deposit in the Citizens National Bank, and which it is alleged the defendant, pretending to act as the agent and attorney in fact for the said Ella M. Ritchie, by undue influence withdrew from the bank at various times between the dates of November 30, 1946 and December 19, 1946, while Mrs. Ritchie was under the influence of opiates and drugs, and in her last illness, was unable to protect her interest.

It is also claimed by the plaintiff, that the defendant, while acting as Mrs. Ritchie's agent, had an attorney prepare a deed conveying to him, the decedent's most valuable property on East Washington street, which said item had been devised by the second item in her will to the plaintiff, Eugene Burford, and one other parcel bequeathed to Tillia, executed on January 7, 1947, just 21 days before the decedent's death on January 28, 1947, as part of a general plan to defraud the other heirs and legatees.

The plaintiff demands an accounting as provided for by the Supreme Court rules of procedure, and be prepared to submit with his answer a complete statement of all moneys received by him together with such disbursement therefrom as he made to himself or any other person.

DIVORCE GRANTED
Another decree in divorce has been handed down by Judge John G. Lamoree in the suit brought by Joseph Jones against Clara Jones, charging desertion and indignities to the person.

Jobs Upon A Time

Hollywood's Lucille Ball started her business and professional career as a model, then suffered an automobile accident that nearly ended her career and even her life. She never would walk again, said her physicians—but she did and went back to modeling. Lucille worked as a film extra until a role in "Roberta" brought a contract.

At 16, Lena Horne got a job in the chorus of a New York supper club. Bandleader Noble Sissle then hired Lena as vocalist. Later she sang with Charlie Barnet's band for a year and made recordings. Lena then sang in a Hollywood nightclub. From that job she graduated to films. Lena recently made a tour of London, Paris and Brussels.

in enacting legislation to deal with the matter.

Incidentally, revelation of these large contributions to Russian military power, in the face of the expenditure of taxpayers' billions to "contain" Communism, would be ridiculous if our previous experience with Japan did not remind us of its potential tragedy.

State Police Say:

Safety is defined as "the freedom from danger." Are we safe, are we free from danger as we use the streets and highways today? There were approximately 32,000 deaths from motor vehicle accidents, almost 10,000 of which were pedestrians. Injuries in traffic accidents in 1947 totalled about 1,100,000. The cost of these accidents, including wage loss, medical expenses, overhead cost of insurance, and property damage amounted to an estimated $2,200,000.

John--Where did you put the Electric bill?

Maybe the reason she can't find her bill is because it's so small. Physically it's post card size, but in amount it's tiny when you divide it by all the jobs electricity does. In fact, if hers is an average family they are getting twice as much electricity for their money as they did twenty years ago.

Solemn Requiem Mass In Berlin For Youth Leader

Among 1,500 Americans At Mass Include General Lucius Clay, Body To Be Flown Home

BERLIN, May 17.—(INS)—Top United States civil and military officials attended a solemn requiem mass in Berlin today for the Rev. Edward J. Flanagan, American Catholic Youth Rehabilitation leader who died Saturday.

The 1,500 Americans at the mass included Gen. Lucius D. Clay, U. S. commander in Germany, and Ambassador Robert D. Murphy, chief state department representative.

Will Be Flown Home
Mssr. Flanagan, the founder of Boys' Town, Neb., was stricken while on a trip to Germany to study army-sponsored youth aid methods.

The eulogy was pronounced by Lt. Col. Roman S. Nuvver, chief U. S. chaplain in Austria, who said:
"Father Flanagan rehabilitated and restored over 6,000 boys—and every boy was chained to Boys' Town by the links of love."

After the mass Mssr. Flanagan's body was flown to Frankfurt, whence it will be flown by B-29 to Salina, Kan., for burial.

Aeschylus, Greek dramatist, is thought to have written 90 plays. Seven of them are extant and more than 70 others, named or nameable, survive only in fragments. His latest and greatest work, "Orestes," was exhibited in 458 B. C.

Nashville has been the capital of Tennessee since the second session of the 16th assembly, in 1826, except for a brief time when the seat of government was moved to Memphis because it was thought Nashville was about to fall into the hands of the Federal army during the Civil war.

Senior High Has Coronation-Prom

Miss Mary Lou Rocks Crowned As May Queen At Junior-Senior Prom Saturday Eve

Impressive were the ceremonies of crowning the May queen by students of the New Castle Senior high school, which took place on Saturday evening in the Cathedral's east dining room, during the intermission of the annual junior-senior prom.

Twenty-two beautiful girls, all attired in gowns of pastel shades took part in the ceremonies. The two queens were lovely in white gowns, and they carried arm bouquets of white carnations with streamers of white snapdragons.

John Brinton, Jr., as master of ceremonies directed the grand march, and Miss Emily Lou Shaffer played the anniversary march while the girls advanced to the thrones.

Miss Margherita Del Castello, senior May queen led the march, with her court of senior attendants following: Dorothy Barge, Andrew Blank, Sally Lou Cusino, Muriel Hamilton, Peggy Kroen, Harriet Birk, Charlene Boyle, Helen Haines, Edna Mae Johnson and Jackie Mitchell.

The junior court advanced to the throne and the attendants were: Donna Allen, Dorothy Frey, Doris Montgomery, Grace Print, Audrey Simcoe, Marilyn Cypher, Susan Green, Jo Ann O'Neill, Antoinette Russo and Adelle Strutin.

May Queen Crowned

The May queen, Miss Mary Lou Rocks then advanced to her throne, and the coronation was held, with last year's queen, Margherita Del Castello, placing the crown upon the head of the new queen.

The new queen and her court were then entertained by the following program: song, "Now Is The Hour," by Adele Bigley; song, "I Understand," by Ed Davies; waltz, Dale Mithey and Kitty Keys; baton twirl, Harriet Birk; dance, Barbara Marquis and Jesters; Alene Morrow and Peggy Floyd. The prom was held from 8:30 to 11:30 o'clock, with the dance music being provided by a popular local orchestra.

During the procession and program, John Brinton, Sr., was in charge in taking motion pictures of the beautiful event, the equipment used by courtesy of the Penn Power company.

The Junior class president, Mryon Frank, gives much credit for the success of the semi-formal prom to the various chairmen: tickets—Dave Horcher; refreshments, Karl Thayer and Herman Zaccarelli; entertainment—John Brinton, Jr., advertising, Esther Lindstrom; programs—Verda Lou Blanton; decorations, Barbara Marquis; invitations and chaperons, Ada Cass.

Supervisor of the class of 1949, Miss Frances M. Haydon, commended the students upon their loyalty and for their cooperation of the entire class, which made this dance one of the most outstanding events of the year.

Four Killed In Airplane Crashes

COLUMBUS, O., May 17.—(INS)—Investigations were launched today into three airplane crashes—two of them at Columbus—that took the lives of four persons in less than 10 hours yesterday.

A twin engine C-46 Curtiss Commando, owned by the Slick Airways, Inc., of San Antonio, Texas, crashed last night two miles north-east of Port Columbus, killing the only persons aboard.

Identified through papers in their pockets were Pilot W. R. McCauley of Ft. Dodge, Ia., and co-pilot Jack Raymond Foote of Chicago.

Two naval reserve pilots who died when their Corsair fighter planes crashed in separate accidents were Lt. (jg) Theodore L. Meyer, 25, of Columbus, and Lt. (jg) William J. Smith of Newark, O. May Crowning At St. Mary's Church

Rev. Fr. James P. O'Connor Gives May Day Ceremonies Sermon Sunday Afternoon

Beautiful in every detail was the May Crowning held Sunday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock in St. Mary's church. The procession led by Nancy Lehman, cross bearer, and Eileen Campbell, banner bearer, led the Sodalis. As the procession progressed the rosary was recited by all, being led by Mary Ann Gittings and Ann Heaney.

The attendants: Lois Cunningham, Jane Lockley, Marilu Waller, Frances Dougherty, Mary Theresa Dougherty, Mary Lowers, Peg O'Leary and Peg Valley followed the rosary procession down the center aisle to the main altar. Next was crown bearer, Patty Glenn, the queen, Agnes O'Connor and her train bearers, Karen Marshall and Kathy Howley. While the crown, made of fresh flowers, was being blessed by the sodality director, Rev. Fr. Francis H. Gallagher, the sodalists sang the hymn, "Glorious Mother". Immediately after the queen, Agnes O'Connor, placed the crown on the statue of Our Lady in her special shrine which will remain in the sanctuary of the church till the end of the week.

"Ave Maria, O Maiden, O Mother" was sung and all recited the "Act of Consecration to the Mother of God".

Rev. Fr. James P. O'Connor, brother of the queen, and assistant pastor of St. Joseph's church, Corapolis, used as his text: "If thou also hadst known, and that in this thy day, the things that are to thy peace." Before continuing with his sermon Father O'Connor asked everyone present to say a private prayer to the Holy Ghost, this being the feast of Pentecost, asking that He put words into his mouth so he could speak the word of God and that his words would bear fruit.

Father O'Connor reviewed the apparitions of "Our Lady of the Rosary" at Fatima in Portugal in 1917. Her requests were for prayer and sacrifice, he said.

"At Fatima 'The Lady of the Rosary' spoke of World War I, which was soon to end, she mentioned World War II, that was so recently finished, and of the unrest which we now have instead of peace, that may lead to a third. She mentioned, however, that even Russia would be converted to the faith if people would do sin and turn to prayer. Father O'Connor asked, 'What can you do to help, especially as sodalists?' 'You can keep the commandments, you can always give good example, and you can pray'."

The hymn "Hail Holy Queen Enthroned Above," preceded the Litany of Our Lady which was led by Father Gallagher. Flowers then were presented by the sodalists. The "Ave Maria" was then sung. Solemn benediction of the Blessed Sacrament followed with the pastor, Rev. Fr. James McCarter as celebrant; Rev. Fr. Francis P. King, deacon, and Rev. Fr. Francis Gallagher as sub-deacon. "Holy God We Praise Thy Name" closed the services.

The crowning was under the direction of the sodality director, the moderator, Sister Miriam Joseph, S. J., and the parish organist, Mrs. Huntley.

Taft Leading In Delegates

Dewey Is Second And Stassen Third, Latest I.N.S. Poll Shows

WASHINGTON, May 17.—(INS)—Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio holds a sturdy lead today in pledged delegates to the Republican national convention, now five weeks away.

Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York is a strong second with Harold E. Stassen of Minnesota running behind in third place.

A poll by International News Service shows the first ballot strength of the "big three" in the GOP race to be:

Taft 301 delegates, Dewey 256 delegates, Stassen 134 delegates.

Republican followers of "dark horse" possibilities and "favorite son" candidates now hold the balance of power in the June 21 convention. There are no signs however of any concerted move by these groups either to one of the "big three" or to one of their own number.

With "favorite sons" eliminated, Taft will gain more delegates than Dewey or Stassen but will still remain far short of the nomination. The INS poll shows, that with "favorite sons" out of the way, the "big three" would have:

Taft 393 delegates, Dewey 293 delegates, Stassen 157 delegates.

This indicates there will be a deadlock in the early balloting at the convention.

Cables Are Cut To Radio Transmitter

PHILADELPHIA, May 17.—(INS)—Radio station WFIL today offered a $2,500 reward for the arrest and conviction of the "saboteur or saboteurs" who cut cables to the station's transmitter, Pa., transmitter last night.

The station went dead a few seconds after Walter Winchell's broadcast at 9 p. m., EDT. Transmission began 11 minutes later with musical transcriptions direct from the transmitter.

Regular broadcasts were not resumed until 11:18 p. m. when an emergency circuit was established between the studio and the transmitter.

Station KYW reported that its circuit was cut at the same time. Operations were resumed in less than two minutes through the use of an alternate cable.

Pittsburgh Robbers Get Nearly $10,000

Cash And Jewelry Are Taken In Two Holdups In Pittsburgh Over Week End

PITTSBURGH, May 17.—(INS)—Allegheny county and Pittsburgh police spread a wide search today for two robber teams who obtained nearly $10,000 in cash and jewelry in two holdups over the week end in Pittsburgh.

In one, Edward Thompson, Youngstown, O., used car dealer, and his brother, Albert, were relieved of $6,500 by two dapper bandits who lured them to a hide-out by offering to sell them two new cars.

In the other, early Sunday, three robbers obtained $1,386 in cash and jewelry valued at $1,730 in the holdup of a pinocchio game.

The Thompson brothers told police they had gone to a Pittsburgh apartment after receiving a call the two cars were for sale. They were greeted by the two gunmen, who bound them, took their money and fled late Saturday. Police learned the apartment had been rented by one of the robbers the day before.

The card game robbery occurred in a northside cafe, of which William F. White, the proprietor, was one of the victims.

Quits in Belgium

ALTHOUGH Belgian Premier Paul-Henri Spaak turned in his cabinet's resignation when members of his Socialist party in the Chamber of Deputies rejected a government compromise on state subsidies for Catholic schools, political observers believe he will be called upon to form new government that would try to solve the 75-year-old issue. Wampum Church Centennials Being Observed

(Special To The News)
WAMPUM, May 17.—Continuing the hundredth anniversary services of the Wampum Presbyterian church which got under way last Friday evening, capacity audiences filled the church Sunday morning and evening, with old memories revived by the former members and pastors in attendance.

Rev. Morrow Preaches
During the Sunday school hour in the morning, old officers were in charge and much reminiscing was done of by-gone days. Rev. Seth Morrow of Pottsville, Pa., a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Morrow, active and respected members of the congregation, delivered the anniversary sermon during the morning worship period and after extending greetings to the members of the church from which he entered the ministry, he congratulated the congregation on its progressiveness and work in the New Life movement. Rev. Morrow chose as his theme "Christianity As Ever". He emphasized the wonderful opportunities for Christians today and urged each to take advantage of them.

During the worship period, special music was presented by the choir. Beautiful floral tributes were placed in the church sanctuary in memory of the following members: Mr. and Mrs. J. C. F. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. John Marshall, Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Marshall. Other floral pieces were presented by the Wampum Methodist church and the Charles Davis family. A generous contribution was given by Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Major of Beaver Falls, former members, in memory of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Major, who were active members.

Evening Service
Rev. J. H. Thorhauer, pastor of the church, served as evening chairman, reading greetings from Rev. B. James Long of Pottsville and Rev. H. E. Woods of Washington, Pa., both former pastors of the church who were unable to attend due to illness. Dr. Robert F. Galbreath, pastor of First Presbyterian church, New Castle, extended greetings to the church during the evening. Former choir members, led by William H. McCullough, furnished the music.

Appropriate remarks were also given by Rev. Charles Bell of Ellwood City, and by a number of former leaders in the church. Rev. W. W. Willis, pastor of the New Galilee U. P. church, read the scripture lesson. Rev. E. R. Tait of Pulaski, a former pastor, gave the evening address.

This evening, the fathers and sons banquet will take place at which time Rev. Mason Cochran of Pittsburgh will make the address, with special music to be presented. The anniversary will come to a close with anniversary night on Tuesday evening.

Coast Guard Hall Is Damaged By Fire

CAPE MAY, N. J., May 17.—(INS)—Damage was estimated at more than $100,000 today in the wake of fire which destroyed the block-long recreation hall on the Cape May Coast Guard Station.

The one-story structure, which was to have been used as a recruit training center, was gutted yesterday despite the efforts of 200 Coast Guardsmen and firemen who fought the flames for three hours. Firemen prevented the flames from spreading to nearby docks where a fleet of patrol boats was anchored.

About six Coast Guardsmen were cut by flying glass. Authorities said $10,000 worth of clothing was lost in the fire.

AGREE ON CONTRACT
PITTSBURGH, May 17.—Harmony Short Lines bus drivers, who recently called off a threatened strike pending negotiation of their wage demands, have agreed to a new contract calling for a 13-cent hourly wage increase and additional benefits for safe driving.

Charles Jones, president of Division 1007 of the AFL, Amalgamated Association of Street, Electric Railway and Motor Coach Employees, said the new contract will be signed today or Tuesday. The men originally had asked a 27-cent hourly wage increase.

Hunt Youth Who Shot Small Boy

PITTSBURGH, May 17.—(INS)—Allegheny county detectives continued a search today for a youth who fatally wounded a four-year-old boy in suburban Mt. Lebanon.

The boy, Francis (Marty) Beattie, Jr., was shot through the head Saturday as he played in the yard of his home with a neighbor girl. He died in a Pittsburgh hospital yesterday.

His father, who was in the yard at the time, said he thought the shot came from a nearby woods, but did not see the assailant.

The .22 caliber bullet had pierced the skull in two places. Detectives said they believed a small boy, who may have been shooting targets in the woods, was responsible.

NON-WEARING RUG
LONDON.—(INS)—A rug, which the Scottish makers claim will never wear out, is being shown at the Industries Fair. Experiments to date have shown that a rug used for exhibition purposes received the exacting test of over 8,000 people walking over it during 12 days.

At the end of this time the rug still did not show any appreciable signs of wear and tear, and after dry-cleaning looked almost new again.

Present your problems to Miss Markel who will promptly send personal replies to questions from readers enclosing stamped, addressed envelopes.

"Is there any restriction on having three bridesmaids in addition to a maid-of-honor? If this is permissible, how should they walk in the procession? (2) Do you think one hired car will be sufficient for the bride, groom, best man and maid-of-honor? Most of the men have their own cars so we will have ample means of transportation. (3) Must I serve dinner after a five o'clock wedding or will a buffet supper be permissible?"

Answer: You may have three bridesmaids if you desire in addition to your maid-of-honor. They may walk thus: one bridesmaid alone, followed by two walking together, the maid-of-honor next walking alone. Or, if you prefer, all may walk in single-file—a new form in the wedding procession. If you will have three ushers, you may, if you prefer, have the bridesmaids and ushers walk together.

(2) A car should call for the bridesmaids and the maid-of-honor. The bride and her father should go to the church together a short time after the arrival of the bride's mother. The groom and the best man go to the church in either one or their own cars or a hired car, as they prefer.

(3) You may serve a buffet supper after your five o'clock wedding.

Question: My husband and I have been asked to be chaperons at a school prom. We are in our mid-twenties and would like to know if we are considered old enough for this. What are our duties and would it be permissible for us to dance?

Answer: Yes, you would be considered old enough to act as chaperons at such a prom. Your duties are merely nominal, since few if any such dances need policing or require the services of a bouncer. You may dance.

SALONIKA, May 17.—(INS)—Greek police and American embassy officials today launched an investigation into the slaying of CBS radio correspondent George Polk, 34, first American newsman to die in the Greek civil war.

Polk's body, his hands and legs tied and a bullet wound in his head, was found floating in Salonika harbor yesterday.

Police said that he had apparently attempted to arrange for the Greek underground to take him to see General Markos Vafthiades, Communist guerrilla leader. He had been missing for a week.

Former Navy Flier
A former Navy flier who was cited for heroism, Polk had told friends he intended to journey to Markos' mountain headquarters for an exclusive interview. He was said to have left behind a letter for CBS executives stating this intention.

While declining to reveal the progress of the investigation, Greek police said that they were hunting Communists whom Polk contacted to arrange the visit. It was believed that Polk had not actually begun the journey, since his camera, typewriter, shaving kit and other necessary travel equipment were still in his hotel room.

American officials joined in the investigation, and CBS correspondent Winston Burdett was sent from Rome to conduct a private probe for Polk's employers.

All the basic minerals are found in Oregon, although undeveloped. Gold, silver and copper are mined, with also stores of lead, oil, quicksilver, chrome, iron ore, platinum and all the clays. The gold output exceeds $2,000,000 a year.

Griswold Returns To Washington To Make Report

WASHINGTON, May 17.—(INS)—The state department announced today that Dwight Griswold, administrator of the Greek aid program, is returning to Washington to report on the Greek situation. Griswold is due to arrive in Washington Wednesday. After a week or ten days, it was said, he will return to his post in Athens.

At the same time, state department spokesman Michael McDermott said that the department has received no further details on the apparent murder of George Polk, Columbia Broadcasting System correspondent. The report of Counsel General Raleigh Gibson said that Greek police and a British mission in Greece both were trying to solve the case.

Polk, missing a week, and supposedly on his way to cover the guerrilla forces in northern Greece, was found floating in Salonika harbor, his hands and feet tied and a bullet in his head.

Mr. Black sustained a laceration of the lip and injury to his left shoulder. His wife, Phoebe, 62, received a dislocation of her right shoulder, fracture of her right leg and injury to her left ankle.

Mr. and Mrs. Black were removed in the car of W. Y. Zeigler, Dravosburg, to the New Castle hospital, according to police.

Union Pickets And Police Clash At Detroit Plant

DETROIT, May 17.—(INS)—Union pickets and police clashed at the Chrysler Corporation's Highland Park plant today in the first flare of violence in the strike of 75,000 Chrysler workers.

Fist fighting broke out when an estimated 500 UAW-CIO pickets massed in front of one entrance to the plant and refused to let non-striking office workers pass.

Several police among the 30 on duty were punched. At least two pickets suffered head cuts. Highland Park Police Lieutenant Ivan Brown said several non-strikers were slugged by pickets.

Brown also reported that the pickets surged into the street and pulled the trolleys off of street cars, blocking traffic.

HEARING TO BE HELD

Tony Jamile and Phillip Mike, 409 East Long avenue, were to receive a hearing today on charges of being a proprietor of a disorderly house, it being a pool room at that address. Policemen Bartoshuk, Hill and Russo claim they visited the place at 11:40 p. m. Saturday and found a card game in a rear room in progress. Both men placed cash bonds of $100. Four visitors posted forfeits of $10. for a hearing, as visitors.

Crackdown On Killing Of Deer At Night With Use Of Autos And Spotlights To Come

HARRISBURG, May 17.—A continuation of the crackdown policy to halt the growing practice of killing deer illegally at night by violators using automobiles and spotlights was re-affirmed today by the state game commission.

The commission disclosed plans to intensify prosecution of all such illegal deer killers, and said that it intends to seize their autos and inflict the stiffest penalties.

The stepped-up campaign was announced following the commission's successful prosecution of three Clarion county men on charges of killing, or assisting in the slaying of four deer out of season with the use of an auto and spotlight last September 20 near Marienville in Forest county.

Brought before Justice of the Peace David H. Blum by commission enforcement officers at Tionesta, one man was fined $400 and costs on charges of illegally killing deer; the other two were fined $300 and costs each on charges of assisting.

Around Hollywood

By FRANK NEILL
(International News Service Staff Correspondent)

HOLLYWOOD, May 17.—(INS)—A movie producer named Don Hartman is going bughouse trying to answer a two-million dollar question.

This is the poser that has him stranded on the lee side of the eight ball:

"Suppose you are a doll with the marryin' feeling—but with no logical lad to take as your lawfully-wedded spouse. What city in the country would you pick as the most likely place to snag a mate?"

Until Hartman finds the answer he can't commence proceedings on the expensive flicker, "Every Girl Should Be Married."

The film has to do with a small town cutie with ring fever who tries to get the big city to latch onto a hubby. Not just any husband, mind you, but someone who is a reasonable facsimile to Cary Grant.

Gets Cary Grant
As it develops, the guy that the gal in the picture finally lands actually is Cary Grant.

Hartman is willing to concede that any filly can get a feller like Grant. But where?

What city possesses such a high romantic ratio that confirmed bachelors become benedicts at the drop of a female eyelash? A two-million buck movie production waits on the answer.

Hartman, who scripted most of the scenario, admitted today: "I've written myself into a corner. I originally had Dallas in mind. Used to live in Dallas and always considered it a sort of matrimonial happy hunting ground."

TIME SPENT ON SAFETY GOOD FARM INVESTMENT

Take time to clean out hazards around the farmstead which might cause injury. With farm labor shortages and continued demands for high food production, farmers cannot afford to lose the services of farm workers through accidents. By eliminating farm danger spots many days which otherwise may be lost as a result of accidents can be saved for productive effort.

Barns cluttered with all sorts of accumulations are farm hazards. Alley-ways or work-eras obstructed with feed, tools, harness, feed-carts, piles of hay, sacks, boards or other obstacles not only reduce working efficiency but actually are accident breeders. Suitable places should be found for such items. Avoid storing loose materials overhead. Make sure that forks, scrapers, brooms, rakes, and other barn equipment are kept in racks or places where they will not fall and injure people. Good house-keeping means nothing more than keeping things in order.

Floors should be solid, smooth and in good repair, and free from obstructions which could cause inconvenience or falls. Wherever door sills project above floor levels, they should be trimmed and tapered to minimize tripping hazards. Likewise, stairways and ladders should not be used as hay chutes or storage places. Ramps may prove desirable to overcome the hazards of different floor levels. In building ramps the incline should be gradual and the surface of a non-skid type. Loft doors, cluttered feed chutes, broken ladders, or stairways present falling hazards.

To Men of the High School CLASS OF '48

THERE's a big day coming soon—the day when you get your diploma. At your graduation exercises you'll hear two things mentioned often—the opportunities and the obligations of manhood. Those aren't just words. They deserve the serious thinking of every high school graduate.

As an American citizen your opportunities are greater than in any other country on earth. And for that very reason you have an obligation to defend America and its freedoms—to make this way of life secure.

By enlisting in the Army or Air Force after graduation you will be discharging your debt to your country. At the same time you can take advantage of one of the finest opportunities ever offered a young man.

CHOOSE YOUR FIELD OF SPECIAL TRAINING BEFORE YOU ENLIST!

If you are 18 to 34 (17 with parents' consent) and a high school graduate, you can select your course of training in the Army or the Air Force before enlisting.

Under the Army Technical School Plan you can specify two different courses that appeal to you in each of two fields. The Army will check to make sure there is an opening in one of the four courses you have selected, and a place will be reserved for you in that course. Then you enlist for 3, 4 or 5 years, and after passing the physical and mental examinations and completing basic training you will be guaranteed training in your chosen field.

The Air Force offers a similar opportunity in its Aviation Career Plan, giving you a pre-enlistment choice of 3 among the more than 40 USAF Specialist Schools. There is no better way to get a start in the great and growing field of aviation.

Either plan gives you good pay, excellent training and a splendid chance for advancement in a real career. You can get full information, including lists of available Specialist Schools and Technical Courses, at your nearest Army and Air Force Recruiting Station.

To Men with 2 Years or More of College WIN YOUR WINGS with the Aviation Cadets

If you are single, 20 to 26 1/2 years old, physically sound, and have completed at least 2 years of college or the equivalent, you may be qualified for pilot training as an Aviation Cadet. Get full details now. Next class starts July 1, 1948.

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, May 17.—Miss Helen Sloss, of Sharon, and Bruce Catt of Butler, will receive this year's "Oscar" awards at Westminster College for the best Little Theatre performances during the present year. The awards will be made at commencement, June 7.

The announcement was made by George Bleasby of the English department, who served as chairman of the faculty judging committee. The awards are made on the basis of the best single performance.

Miss Sloss, junior, appeared in three major productions, and was student assistant in a fourth. Mr. Catt also participated in four productions.

Except for a small strip of land north of Texas, the territory that now is Oklahoma was organized in 1834 as an Indian territory. White people were barred as settlers. There was a large influx of Indians from other parts of the country, but a considerable area in the central part remained unoccupied, and this section was purchased by the United States government and opened to the public in April, 1889. More than 50,000 persons entered in one day.

The tears which are dropping

For instance, General Manager George Weiss of the New York Yankees estimates that between 100 and 150 of the faulty climate have been washed out of the New York club out of 165,000 admissions during the past few rainy days.

The Yankees, incidentally, are going west with two men missing. Pitcher Bill Bevens was sent to the club's Newark International League farm, and condition his arm, and Lonnie Frey, veteran utility infielder, was given his unconditional release.

Four eastern games were washed out Sunday, but in the west the two home run leaders of their respective leagues each added a circuit clout to their totals. A home by Kellen, the top man, failed to aid the Cleveland Indians as they dropped a 10-inning decision to the Chicago White Sox 6 to 4. Cleveland won the night cap, 9 to 2. Hank Sauer's three

Driver Is Killed In Qualifying Run

INDIANAPOLIS, May 17.—(INS)—An ominous calm settled today over the Indianapolis Motor Speedway following the first fatality in the qualifying trials for the 500-mile Memorial Day classic.

Ralph Hepburn, a grand guy often called the "Gentleman" of auto racing, died yesterday behind the wheel of the famed Novi car which once carried him to the fastest speed attained around the two-and-a-half-mile oval.

Death came to "Hap," as he was affectionately called by the racing fraternity, while taking a practice spin in the 8-cylinder speedster which just Friday crashed coming out of a turn with Cliff Bergere in the driving seat.

Dr. Roger Smith, the speedway's chief surgeon, said Hepburn was killed instantly when the car crashed into the north turn retaining wall.

Johnny Benglian, clever Philadelphia southpaw, is the newly elected Penn State boxing captain. Benglian won Eastern 127-pound honors in 1947.

Bob Rutherford Jr., son of the veteran Penn State golf coach, is his father's first assistant on the golf links.

LOUIS TO BEGIN SERIOUS TRAINING

BEAR LAKE, Mich., May 17.—(INS)—Heavyweight Champion Joe Louis breaks camp at Bear Lake today and heads for Pompton Lakes, N. J., site of his serious training for his title defense against Jersey Joe Walcott, June 23.

Louis will leave Detroit by train tonight, arriving in New York tomorrow morning. He expects to start sparring drills at Pompton Lakes Thursday.

The champ spent a month in roadwork and other conditioning maneuvers at Bear Lake.

SEE BEAU JACK BEATING JANIRO WASHINGTON, May 17.—(INS)—Beau Jack, former lightweight champion, is rated a two to one favorite today to defeat Tony Janiro, of Youngstown, Ohio, in their scheduled 10-round bout at Griffith Stadium tonight.

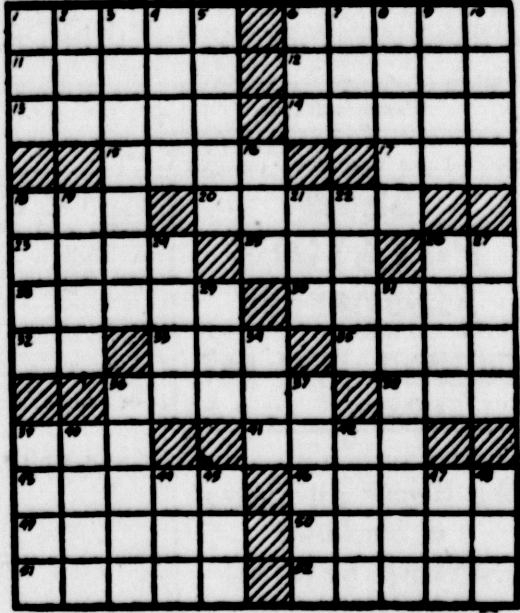

Janiro was given a TKO over Jackie in a scrap last year when the former titleholder fractured his knee cap.

Syracuse University will provide the opposition for Penn State's only night football game at Syracuse in 1948.

Double base gunpowder is that made from both nitrocellulose and nitroglycerin.

PALMER WINS TOURNEY

PHILADELPHIA, May 17.—(INS)—Johnny Palmer, North Carolina's gift to the fairways, held a second major links crown today, shooting faultlessly in the rain to cope with the fifth annual Philadelphia Inquirer invitation golf tournament.

The 29-year-old western open champion from Badin carded a brilliant 68 on the drenched White-mars Valley Country club course yesterday to edge out veteran Ben Hogan of Hershey, Pa., by four strokes.

Women cheerleaders are on their way out again at Penn State. The ban was lifted during the war but will be restored in 1949 when the present juniors are graduated.
